I love this game but im refunding it til i can play with a controller soz m8s. age of empires 2
what more do i need to say. Pay to win sadly. very good game to play with friends (if you have). A short and fun game. A winning run takes 30-35 minutes, but the random layouts give it some replayability. It's like a side scrolling Brogue, just not as punishing.. This is another third party HOG picked up by Artifex. It's in the style of 9 Clues, but with a refreshing crime theme instead of the usual supernatural stuff. Sadly there are lots of weird graphical glitches and mistranslations, as well as missing chunks of dialogue and that sort of thing. The puzzles and HOG scenes are very easy too.. A excellent well done addicting retro action shooter. The game play brings back the feel of arcade games from the 80's. With a very nicely done techo soundtrack, colorful graphics and sound. The game hits the spot dead on how retro arcade shooters should be done. Highly recommened for action shooter fans.. the cammera angle gives you the feeling you're craning your neck, the flow of combat and objectives feels clunky and arbitrary, the asthetics are meh.. great game and i love reading the discussions which go along the lines of:

"omg why did u not include random massacre of random place which killed 200 billion people"

"vuvuzuela have bad economy xD"

"if u dont show what i want den bad gam!!1". This game plays kinda like a phone game without the micro payments. Very fun. Really enjoying the way the Wizardy franchise is put into a rougelike.

I will not recommend the game at its current state since the game lacks basic things and is not optimized well.
MMMMMMMMMMMM Yesss'sss i shall sip on my chardonnay while listening to this beautiful sound track and just ravishing my self

. Lolz a really funny game. The bad options are very hilarious.

Of course this is not a serious dating tutorial.. Several people have complained of loading screens in excess of 5 to 10 minutes so I timed the loading screen when I first started this game after install. Loading took less than 2 minutes so either several very impatient kids bought this and are exaggerating or they have systems that are even more ancient than mine(8 core AMD CPU, 24gb DDR3 Ram, GTX 980Ti). Having said that, this game isnt quite ready for prime time. I LOVE the concept and Ill probably buy it again once its in a playable condition but right now I dont consider it playable and thus, not ready for Early access on Steam. I have no problems with frame rates or movement but movement in this game isnt fluid no matter what your frame rate might be. The best way that I can describe movement is "chunky". The looting seems promising as does the crafting. The environment is pretty convincing as well except that even on high settings, everything has this gray, hazy overtone. Its like playing the game with cataracts in your eyes(and this is on high settings). Then come the zombies. They are fast and unforgiving and thats great. The problem is that they are pretty much literally on top of you as they attack so no matter which way you spin to take aim with your gun you have a REALLY difficult time targeting them never mind targeting their heads. And your arms and gun protrude THROUGH their bodies because of course they are on top of you so you cant hit them when you fire your gun because of that as well. Its very frustrating. Of course you can aim and shoot the zombies before they get on top of you but like I said, they are fast and quite often jump on you from out of bushes or around a corner. So Ill be submitting JOE for a refund and keep my eye on it for the future. I dont mind Early Access games and own a ton of them but they are all very playable. This particular Early Access game is in the very earliest stages of "playable" that I can imagine.. Can't launch this gaym
. Animyst is a huge world and easy to pick up and play, most items can be used for weapons or support and rest can be used to craft better weapons and equipment. It has a nice old school feel to it and has that eerie humanoid vibe, almost voodoo like.

Pvp in here starts off feeling like your hunting, by following a purple flare that everyone has on them and moving towards said person to locate and attack them. You have a variety of spells that you can use to attack, defend and also heal yourself while in combat with another.

The gatherer aspect is pretty easy, just run up to an glowing orb and hit E and its in your inventory and also tells you what you picked up, pretty much everywhere you go, you will find something of use except in the wide desert areas where things are lacking of anything but sand.

They are some NPC's/Mobs to find and attack that surround higher tier items but are limited to dungeon areas which can be difficult to find. With that said, the huge area can be annoying difficult to traverse because it is so huge and you can get frustrated feeling like your lost but thankfully you can use a teleport that allows you to go to multiple locations.

Plus you can make bases out of 3 different materials to hold your shrines you so you can gather in peace or even go out and destroy other ppl's bases and shrines if you like that.

Devs are very active on Discord and communicate often with ppl and show whether they are interested in ideas or not. You will usually find one of the devs ingame playing along with others, either helping out or attacking you which to me is a good thing because if a dev is not playing their product why make it. XD

So I have over 300hrs into the game and been playing since late July and this game has changed so much from when I first started, many of the suggestions put forth by players have been install into the game making it better than before and ofc it can still continue to go with the help of others that can help make this game even more fun than it is now. Come join the fun of helping creating something great!. Woah Dave takes classic elements from a few classic arcade titles and combines them into an temporarily-displaced, just-one-more-play-addictive gem. It has (of course) couch two player, and the recent DELUXE patch added two new levels and a couple of new mechanics that really round things out, including bosses! If you should ever tire of the rockin' soundtrack, which will take a while, it seems to play well to whatever your music player is putting out at the time. If you feel competitive, each mode\map\difficulty combo has its own leaderboard.

JUST ONE THING: Dave wants you to use a controller. C'mon man!. I do not reccomend this game I have all the requiriements and it lags completly fix the freaking LAAAAAG!!!!!!!!!!!!!! First non-pre release (?) review for one of the best visual novels I played in my life.

This was one of the most beautiful stories I have ever read with a lot of endings based on a variety of choices and a 21 chapter over 3 hour story of heart-pounding action and tear-jerking moments.

I can't describe how beautiful the plot and the writing style as well as the art and music was.

Great visual novel easily worth 5 times the price.

5th anniversary project? No you mean masterpiece - probably gonna be your visual novel magnum opus Invertmouse and I am not just praising you. :-)

I am still feeling emotional from acheiving what I consider the true ending. <33
